FOREWORD

. . . . . It was a new school year—the same, yet different. It was a year of work and satisfaction. Another year of pushing for exams and hopes of spring and graduation. It was a year of football, dances, halls and lunchlines . . . a year of spirit, laughter, and splashes of orange and black . . .

This school means something different to each individual and it is our wish to have captured in the following pages something of Troy High School that each student knows, loves, and will always remember.

LAURIE SWANSON - TROY'S JUNIOR MISS

The 1977 Junior Miss contest was filled with excitement as seven Troy girls competed for the title of Troy Junior Miss. The girls worked hard together preparing for the pageant on the night of Sept. 24th. The competition results were:

Laurie Swanson - Troy Jr. Miss, Scholarship,
Blythe Martinez - First Runner-Up,
Teresa Swanson - Second Runner-Up,
Tami Lake - Spirit of Junior Miss,
Kathi Payne - Physical Fitness Award,
Marilyn Swanson - Talent Award, and
Jane Hanson - Poise and Appearance.

It was an exciting evening, long to be remembered for the girls and all who attended.

Judy Thompson, Advisor of the Junior Miss contestants, watches with excitement and enthusiasm as her girls perform.

Thirty-three students received their diplomas from Troy high school on May 27.

Senator Frank Church, who was the guest speaker, urged the graduates to value the freedom of Americans by getting involved and doing their own thinking.

Speeches were also given by Valedictorian Laurie Swanson and Salutatorian Leon Zeller. A highlight of the evening was the announcement that Kristin McKie was the winner of the Berg Achievement trophy.

S-227

THE DOORS ARE CLOSED FOR ANOTHER YEAR ... NEVER AGAIN WILL THEY OPEN TO THE SAME GROUP OF FACES OR LAUGHING VOICES. FOR SOME OF US ... THEY'RE CLOSED FOREVER.

WE'LL REMEMBER THEM, NOT SO MUCH FOR WHAT THEY TAUGHT US, BUT MORE FOR WHAT THEY DID. ONE QUESTION STILL REMAINS UNANSWERED ...

WILL THEY REMEMBER US?
